Postlude Body and Soul by Edward Heyman, Robert Sour, & John Green (BMI 134695)

Adopted by Adam Brinckerhoff

I was born into this world, both lost and found Couldn’t find life til I heard, your voice resound

Biology said to me, I have one true family
But your holy genealogy, means much more and it begs to differ

I am adopted into your holy household, by your love royal blood that I need so much
I don’t remember earning love that’s so tender, cause I’m fed grace’s bread I know I am adopted

I’m reborn into this world, your love has found
And I find life in your word, its grace resounds

Biology said to me, I have one true family
begs to differ

I am adopted into your holy household, by your love royal blood that I need so much

I don’t remember earning love that’s so tender,
cause I’m fed grace’s bread I know I am adopted

You could pick and choose, who will win or lose,
but you take anyone
If we lose our pride, and give you our lives, you will save all that come
You could pick and choose, who will win or lose,
but you take anyone
save all that come
You could pick and choose, who will win or lose,
but you take anyone
save all that come

I am adopted into your holy household, by your love royal blood that I need so much
I don’t remember earning love that’s so tender,
cause I’m fed grace’s bread I know I am adopted
